

Cards of condolence for the royal family at The Old Downs Residential Care Home

On Thursday 15 September our residents at The Old Downs Residential Care Home made their own unique and beautiful condolence cards for the Queen's family.

They expressed their thoughts and gratitude towards Her Majesty inside the cards, showing their appreciation of all she has done for our country.

