

Salt dough and collage painting at The Old Downs Residential Care Home

Last week our residents at The Old Downs Residential Care Home enjoyed a creative session together when they collaborated to create some colourful collages with paints.

Using their craft skills they also made some salt dough which they then cut into different shapes and animals. These were then painted in bright colours using lots of artistic skills.

Everybody thoroughly enjoyed these social activities and we look forward to the next ones!

