

St Patricks Day bread baking at The Old Downs Residential Care Home

We've been keeping our residents' spirits up here at The Old Downs Residential Care Home, with some St Patrick Day soda bread baking, which was a big hit!

Our ladies mixed all the ingredients together and prepped the dough to be baked – very much a team effort.

The finished loaves were enjoyed by everybody at afternoon tea time.

A super day of baking and tasting!

